JANUARY 2026 NEWSLETTER

Revelation 21:1-6

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment."

What does it mean to start something new? I was always struck by the deep wisdom of a certain lyric of the song Closing Time by the band, Semisonic, "every new beginning comes from some other beginning's end." As I investigated it further, I found that the quote goes all the way back to the philosopher, Seneca, and the exploration of beginnings and endings is something that has been an integral part of our experience of life since the first beginning. As we enter this new year, we are called to reflect on what has been and also look forward to what is yet to come.

We have now walked this path of ministry for over 4 years now. I can't believe how fast it has gone. Looking back, I reflect on the infants who have come to be baptized, the teens who have affirmed their baptisms in Confirmation, the community members and agencies that we have supported through our benevolence dollars, and those we have said farewell to as they were welcomed into life eternal and into the waiting arms of their Savior. We have laughed, cried, made missteps, forgiven one another. We have even raised our hands in praise and danced a bit as the music filled out hearts and souls. We have seen new friends join us on this path and have seen friends move away to begin a new chapter in their lives.

We have also become aware of challenges throughout society around us. We have stood across the corner from those who believe differently than we do. We have supported one another through conversation toward understanding. But most of all, we have striven to fulfill what Jesus has called us to do, "love God and love our neighbor".

What will 2026 hold for us? That is yet to be seen. We will know more about that in January of 2027. But for now, the possibilities of 2026 lie before us. We can dream and imagine, pray and contemplate, and then do the work to make the possibilities into realities. With God's leading, we are called to be the church in the world today. Not the world 10 or 15 years ago, or the world 20 years in the future, but rather to live into the time that is now. We have 525,600 minutes to be the church in our world over this next year. May 2026 will be a season of love as we live our lives as the Body of Christ.

Let us relax into endings and beginnings as we remember Christ as our Alpha and Omega!

Blessings in this new year!

A note from the office...

As the new year sets on us, I am looking for a couple volunteers to work in the office answering phones and assisting any visitors that might stop by. Volunteers will be need to fill in for me during time off. If you are interested please contact the office at 360-293-9586 or email at info@anacorteslutheran.org

Properties 12/22/2025

The preschool furnace filters had to be changed just after 3 weeks since last change. All the accumulated dust probably came from the disconnected clothes dryer vent hose.

The two Church outside hose faucets still leak water when used.

Front of the church, above the building house numbers the security light does not work.

From the Bishop:

January 2026

Several years ago, when I was a young pastor serving in a congregation, a member came to tell me he was leaving the church for another one. When I asked why, he said, “I don’t like all the lovey-dovey stuff.” I was caught off guard and didn’t have a very good response in the moment. Now I wish I had said something like, “When you say ‘lovey, dovey’ are you referring to the Sermon on the Mount when Jesus says we are to love even our enemies? Or when Jesus says his new command is that we love one another as he has loved us? Or when Jesus, hanging on the cross, says, ‘Father, forgive them?’ Or when the risen Jesus shows up on the shore, feeds his friends, and asks Peter – three times – ‘Do you love me?’ Or, maybe you mean Paul, who says that you can have all kinds of gifts and accomplishments, but without love, you are nothing. Or when Paul writes that out of faith, hope, and love, love is the greatest or ...”. You get the idea. But I didn’t have those words that day.

Now, several years later, I wish I could answer him again. Because as much as he thought he was rejecting something weak, living into God’s expansive love is anything but. It can be beautiful and life-giving, yes – but it is also demanding and hard. Especially when that love calls us to care for people we don’t particularly like, let alone agree with.

Today, in this fractured time, in this fractured world, how do we live into being ‘lovey-dovey’ in the way God first shows us through Jesus? How do we love when we’re afraid? How do we love those who are causing real harm? How do we love people with whom we feel uncomfortable or “icky?” How do we love those we would rather avoid? How do we love those we despise?

First, we have to be honest with ourselves. As clearly as we may see the sin of others, we also must acknowledge our own. We fall short time and time again. We cannot justify ourselves out of sin, nor can we place ourselves above anyone else. God is the one who comes in Jesus to bring wholeness, reconciliation, and salvation – not just to some, but to the whole world (John 3:16-17).

Second, every person is made in the image of God. Every person is a small miracle. God formed each person with care and intention. Every person, all eight billion of us on this planet, are a wonder and a joy to God. God loves each person beyond measure. God loves those fleeing countries (like Moses and the holy family). God loves those tangled up in messes of their own making (like David). God loves those who are trying their very best (like Martha). God even loves those who would rather scroll on their phones than engage (well ... for a scriptural reference perhaps this could be those churches in Revelation who are neither hot nor cold). God loves us all. Thank God!

And because of God’s amazing love, we are called to listen to one another and open our hearts to one another. This, of course, also means speaking up when there is injustice or harm – not out of hatred but out of love. Love rooted in Christ requires us to name and resist when harmful decisions made by those in power damage lives, especially when those decisions fall hardest on people who have been marginalized, silenced or erased. Love rooted in Christ pushes us to advocate for policies and practices that move people and systems toward equity and inclusion – whether we are talking about immigrants or farmers, children or grandmothers, those with homes and those without – neighbors all.

Third, we cannot love as God calls us to love on our own (see #1 above). We need the Holy Spirit and we need community. We need one another for accountability, and we need each other to help us journey forward together – beyond fear, beyond hatred, beyond the walls that we so easily build. Love cannot remain theoretical and abstract. No. Love is gritty and enfleshed.

As we begin 2026, I pray that, through the Holy Spirit, we love God and one another in our words and our actions. I pray that we practice loving all – even our enemies. And I pray that in this new year, others will look at us and say, “Wow. They are fiercely ‘lovely-dovey.’”

Following the Way of Jesus, may it be so.
